ment Affairs.
CHANCELLOR TO REMAIN

Special Cable to Boston American.
BREMEN, Nov. 17. After a conference which lasted an hour and which was held in the new palace at Potsdam this afternoon, it was officially stated that Emperor Wilhelm had given assurance to his son would lead to further agreement. This virtually means that the Kaiser will not interfere in German politics but will leave the Chancellor to his own devices. It was further announced that Count Von Buelow will continue to act as imperial Chancellor, thus preserving the continuity of the Emperor's government. It is thought that the agreement will satisfy the dissatisfied feeling which has existed for some time in the German Empire.

The Emperor's apparent intention to leave the Chancellor to his own devices is a move which has been long expected. Some speculation was held before the Emperor's departure as to the possibility of his leaving the Chancellor to his own devices. MERCHANTS
WIN EXPRESS
REDUCTION

The official announcement of the victory of the Boston Merchants Association in its battle with the American Express Company was made today by the association in a letter to the Boston Globe. The letter stated that the association had secured a reduction in the rates of the company. The reduction in rates was a result of the association's persistent efforts to secure a reduction in the rates of the company. The association had been in a long battle with the company, and the reduction in rates was a significant victory for the association.
